Introduction

About this policy

Your policy consists of:

1. this policy wording, and
2. the schedule, and
3. any addendum, endorsement or warranty that we apply.

Your duty of disclosure

When you apply for insurance, you have a legal duty of disclosure. This means you must tell us everything you know (or could be reasonably expected to know) that a prudent insurer would want to take into account in deciding:

1. whether to accept or decline your insurance, or
2. the cost or terms of the insurance, including the excess.

You also have this duty every time your insurance renews and when you make any changes to it. If you breach this duty, we may treat your policy as being of no effect and to have never existed. Please ask us if you are not sure whether you need to tell us about something.

Changing your mind

If you are not happy with this policy, you are welcome to change your mind, provided you tell us within 30 days of the date this policy started. We will treat your policy as being of no effect and to have never existed and refund in full any premium you have paid. This does not apply if you have made a claim on your policy.

Reading this policy

Some of the words in this policy are in bold. This is because they have a special meaning. There is a list of these words and what they mean at the back of this policy in the section 'Definitions'. To make it easy for you to understand this policy we have included some examples or comments in italics. The words in italics do not affect or limit the meaning of the section they refer to. Please also note that the headings in this policy are designed to help you find your way around. They should not be used when interpreting this policy wording.

Our agreement

We have an agreement with you. You agree to pay us the premium. In exchange, and in reliance on the information provided in the application, we agree to cover you as set out in this policy wording.

Section one – cover for your contents

What you are covered for:

You are covered for sudden and accidental loss to contents that occurs during the period of cover while they are in New Zealand:

1. at the home, or
2. in your possession or in the possession of a member of your family while in transit from the place where they were acquired to the home, or
3. temporarily removed from the home.

What you are not covered for:

48 hour restriction

You are not covered for loss that occurs during the first 48 hours of this policy, caused by storm, flood or landslip. This only applies when you first take the policy out with us.

However, this restriction does not apply where this policy started immediately following another policy that also insured the same property against the risks of storm, flood and landslip.

Vacant homes

If you, or a person authorised by you, have not been living at the home for a period of more than 90 consecutive days, we will only pay for loss to contents that is caused by fire, explosion, lightning or natural disaster.

This restriction applies unless:

1. you have notified us and we have agreed in writing to cover the contents while the home is unoccupied. We may, at this time, change the terms of your policy.
2. we have the home recorded as a holiday home, and the following criteria are met:
 - (a) the home and contents are inspected inside and outside by you or a nominated person at least every 90 days, and
 - (b) the home, its grounds and the contents are adequately maintained, and
 - (c) mail is cleared regularly, and
 - (d) the water supply is turned off, and
 - (e) all doors are locked, and all windows secured.

This restriction will end as soon as you, or a person authorised by you, is living in the home again.

Causes of loss not covered

You are not covered for loss to contents connected in any way with:

1. structural additions or structural alterations, unless we have been notified of the additions or alterations beforehand and we have agreed in writing to cover this, or
2. water in any form (including hail and snow) entering the home because any roofing material, exterior cladding, window or door has been removed by:
 - (a) you, or
 - (b) any other person who is acting on your authority, or
3. insects, rodents or vermin (other than possums).

However, these exclusions apply only to contents directly affected. They do not apply to resultant sudden and accidental loss to other contents.

Types of loss not covered

You are not covered for:

1. repairing or replacing undamaged parts of a complete pair or set, unless cover is provided under the 'Matching curtains' or 'Pairs and sets' automatic additional benefits, or

3. loss, cost or expense arising from any fault, defect, error or omission in:
 - (a) design, plan or specification, or
 - (b) workmanship, construction or materials.

However, this exclusion 3. applies only to contents directly affected. It does not apply to resultant sudden and accidental loss to other contents, or

4. the breakdown, failure or wearing out of any mechanical or electrical equipment, or any part thereof, unless burning out occurs as a result of an accidental and external force.
